The BSOS Feller Center requires students on academic probation/dismissal to complete an Academic Action Plan. The Academic Action Plan is a written record of a student's commitment to his or her academic success. An Academic Action Plan is to be completed each semester that a student is on academic probation and will remain in the student's advising folder. You are required to complete this plan with your College Advisor prior to next semester's registration.

I have fewer than 60 credits

I have 60 credits or more and/or enrolled in a LEP Major

Goal 1:

To avoid academic dismissal, I need a 2.0 cumulative/semester GPA by the end of _____ semester. This means that I need a GPA of _____ in _____ credits to reach a cumulative 2.0 GPA.
